

West Coast Community Bank Continues Expansion with New Full-Service Branch in San Mateo

October 19, 2026

SAN MATEO, Calif., Oct. 19, 2026 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- West Coast Community Bank (Nasdaq: WCCB), a $2.9 billion community bank headquartered in Santa Cruz, Calif., is now welcoming clients at its newest full-service branch in San Mateo, located at 1300 S. El Camino Real, Suite 203. The branch extends the Bank's presence into the San Francisco Peninsula and enables it to deliver top-rated, relationship-based banking to individuals, businesses and families throughout the region.

"San Mateo is a hub for businesses of every size, across a variety of industries," said Wyman Wong, SVP Director of Private Banking at West Coast Community Bank in San Mateo. "I have seen firsthand the community- and business-minded spirits that define this area, and the Bank's new location enables us to partner seamlessly with clients who are driving the economic vitality of the Peninsula."

West Coast Community Bank's clients in San Mateo already include nonprofits, legal, medical and dental offices, and construction firms, such as Truebeck Construction.

"At Truebeck Construction, we value banking relationships that are built on responsiveness, trust and accountability," said Kathy Reiner, CFO, Truebeck Construction. "West Coast Community Bank provides a high level of personalized service, along with direct access to executive leadership when important decisions need to be made. Their relationship-focused approach and comprehensive suite of banking solutions help support our business as we continue to grow throughout multiple states."

San Mateo is West Coast Community Bank's 11th location and comes as the Bank has expanded into additional innovation and commercial centers.

"Our expansion first into Silicon Valley and now the Peninsula shows our long-term commitment to serving the Bay Area's dynamic markets with robust products, local decision making and deep community engagement," said Krista Snelling, West Coast Community Bank Chairman and CEO. "San Mateo is the perfect place for us to reach more clients with experienced and exceptional community banking services. We are excited to build lasting relationships with the people and businesses of San Mateo and beyond."

ABOUT WEST COAST COMMUNITY BANK

Founded in 2004, West Coast Community Bank is the wholly owned subsidiary of West Coast Community Bancorp, a bank holding company. The Bank is a top-rated, locally operated and full-service community bank headquartered in Santa Cruz, Calif. with branches in Aptos, Capitola, King City, Monterey, Salinas, San Jose, San Luis Obispo, San Mateo, Santa Cruz, Scotts Valley and Watsonville. West Coast Community Bank is distinguished from "big banks" by its relationship-based service, problem-solving focus and direct access to decision makers. The Bank also is an SBA Preferred Lending Partner. As a full-service bank, West Coast Community Bank offers competitive deposit and lending solutions for businesses and individuals; including business loans, lines of credit, commercial real estate financing, construction lending, asset-based lending, agricultural loans, SBA and USDA government guaranteed loans, credit cards, merchant services, remote deposit capture, mobile and online banking, bill payment and treasury management. True to its community roots, West Coast Community Bank has supported regional well-being by actively participating in and donating to local nonprofit organizations. Visit wccb.com for more information.

Alison Voorhees
SVP Director of Marketing
831.600.4013 direct
avoorhees@wccb.com

